The contribution, once, as a whole (closer to validation)
Whetten's seven questions, from "What's new?" to "Who cares?", may serve as the check (less well for a recommendation)
Contribution
what the paper adds claims it rests on Each claim, step by step (verification)
Source
The work exists, and it says what the claim attributes to it, for the cases and period covered Declared starting point Stated, with a note on whether the field accepts or contests it Own work
a search, a trial
A method someone else could repeat Other claims or several sources jointly Warrant check: relevance, sufficiency; rebuttal and the strongest objection, with its answer, recorded Claim with its qualifier
Tier = the lower of: support for the grounds, outcome of the warrant check → permitted qualifiers. Established needs a check confirmed by someone else
